DIVE INTO cultural experiences

Oxford, Ohio is rich in cultural experiences that celebrate both its artistic spirit and deep historical roots. The Oxford Community Arts Center (OCAC), located in the historic Oxford Female Institute building, serves as a vibrant hub for creativity—offering art exhibitions, performances, classes, and studio space for local artists. Each summer, the OCAC and Enjoy Oxford host Shakespeare in the Park, a free outdoor event that brings live theater to the community in collaboration with the Cincinnati Shakespeare Company. Nearby, the William H. McGuffey House and Museum, a National Historic Landmark on Miami University's campus, preserves the legacy of McGuffey's Readers and offers insight into 19th-century education and life in Ohio.

Historical exploration continues through the Oxford Ohio Black History Tour, a self-guided walking tour that highlights significant Black heritage sites such as Bethel A.M.E. Church and the Freedom Summer Memorial. The tour brings attention to the lives and contributions of Black community members throughout Oxford's history. Additionally, the Oxford Museum Association (OMA) preserves rural 19th-century life through the Doty and DeWitt Homesteads—two historic homes that are open to the public—and hosts annual events like the Apple Butter Festival and Hueston Woods Arts & Crafts Fair. Together, these cultural experiences reflect Oxford's ongoing commitment to honoring its past while fostering a strong sense of community and creativity.

Fun Fact: Pick up FREE walking tour guides 24/7 outside our office door! Enjoy Oxford, 14 W. Park Place. Suite C a self-guided walking tour developed by Enjoy Oxford, highlights 16 significant sites that commemorate the contributions and experiences of Black residents in the area. Notable stops include the Bethel A.M.E. Church, one of Oxford's oldest Black congregations, and the Freedom Summer Memorial on Miami University's Western Campus, which honors three civil rights workers who trained there in 1964 before losing their lives in Mississippi.

OHIO BLACK HISTORY TOUR

SHAKESPEARE IN THE PARK

Free outdoor performance features the Cincinnati Shakespeare Company presenting one of Shakespeare's timeless plays in the OCAC's outdoor pavilion.

OXFORD COMMUNITY ARTS CENTER

Oxford Community Arts Center serves as a cornerstone for the city's artistic endeavors. Housed in the historic Oxford Female Institute building, established in 1849, the center has evolved from an educational institution for women into a vibrant arts hub. After serving various roles, including as a women's dormitory known as "Ox College,"

OXFORD MUSEUM ASSOCIATION EVENTS

Oxford Museum Association works in preserving and interpreting the 19th and early 20th-century rural heritage. Visit several historic sites, including the Doty Homestead and the DeWitt Log Homestead. Check out community events such as the annual Hueston Woods Arts & Crafts Fair and the Apple Butter Festival, featuring artisan vendors, live music, and demonstrations.

MCGUFFEY HOUSE & MUSEUM

William H. McGuffey House and Museum, located on Miami University's campus. Built in 1833, this Federal-style brick house was the residence of William Holmes McGuffey, a professor at Miami University and the author of the McGuffey Readers, a series of educational books that shaped American public education in the 19th century.

meet me in the great OUTDOORS

Feeling your best outdoors? Oxford's got...a lot of it! For the avid hiker, runner, or just relaxer, we can find you the best spot to recharge and refresh. Oxford is full of great outdoor spots to explore. Walk, run, or bike the scenic Oxford Area Trails, or unwind in nature at Ruder Preserve, Silvoor Sanctuary, and the Miami University Natural Areas. Nearby MetroParks offer even more ways to play outside, and Pepper Park is perfect for relaxing, hiking, or having a picnic. However you enjoy the outdoors, you'll find it here.

Oxford Area Trails

Take a stroll on Oxford's multi-use paths that connect our community to healthier lifestyles, and take in the surroundings of nature on a paved path to historical landmarks and new. The trails weave together the fabric of surrounding neighborhoods and enhance the quality of community living surrounding Oxford. Look out for Oxford's newest race, the O.A.T.S. & Honey 5K/10K established in 2025 will be held annually in the spring before the Oxford Bee Festival.

www.oxfordareatrails.org

Miami University Natural Areas

The Miami University Natural Areas offer over 1,000 acres of forests, streams, and meadows with more than 17 miles of scenic hiking trails. With several trailheads it's easy to find your way into the woods for a quick walk or take a longer adventure.

Disc Golf

Take on the 18 hole course through the hills and woods at Miami University's Western Campus.

Helen Ruder Preserve

This peaceful, tucked-away spot just outside of Yager Stadium that's perfect for a quiet walk or nature break. This preserve is divided into two sides, a short loop trail winding through woods and wetlands, and the other connecting to Bachelor Preserve. It's a great place to enjoy wildflowers, birds, and the sounds of Four Mile Creek. It's small but full of charm—ideal for a quick dose of fresh air and natural beauty.

Oxford Aquatic Center & Community Park

Oxford Community Park, and the Oxford Aquatic Center is a summer favorite for families and visitors. This award-winning facility features a zero-depth entry pool with a kiddie area, water slides, a lazy river, water basketball, and an 8-lane competition pool with diving boards. The surrounding park offers a variety of amenities, including lighted ball diamonds, playgrounds, walking paths, ball courts, and natural areas, making it a perfect spot for recreation and relaxation for all ages.

Silvoor Biological Sanctuary

This five-acre preserve was transformed in the 1930s by Miami University zoology professor Dr. Robert A. Hefner and his family into a thriving natural habitat. Today, it boasts over 60 species of native wildflowers, a short loop trail, and a peaceful stream. Each spring, the sanctuary hosts guided Wildflower Walks led by Miami University botanists, offering visitors a chance to learn about local flora and enjoy the seasonal blooms.

MetroParks of Butler County

Just south of town, Indian Creek MetroPark features wooded trails, creek access, a playground, and picnic shelters—ideal for hiking, birdwatching, or a relaxing afternoon outdoors. Nearby, Mill Race Preserve MetroPark offers two miles of scenic trails through meadows and along Four Mile Creek, accessible via the Oxford Area Trail System. These parks provide a peaceful escape into nature, all within a short drive or bike ride from Uptown Oxford.

Pepper Park

A versatile outdoor space that blends recreation with natural beauty. The park features a shelter with grills and electric hookups, a volleyball court, a baseball diamond, and restrooms, making it ideal for gatherings and sports activities. For nature enthusiasts, Pepper Park offers access to the Pepper Woods Trail, a 1.59-mile loop through diverse woodlands, and connects to the Silvoor Biological Sanctuary, Western Loop Trails, and Oxford Area Trails.

Found AROUND TOWN

Oxford loves dogs!

Uptown Music

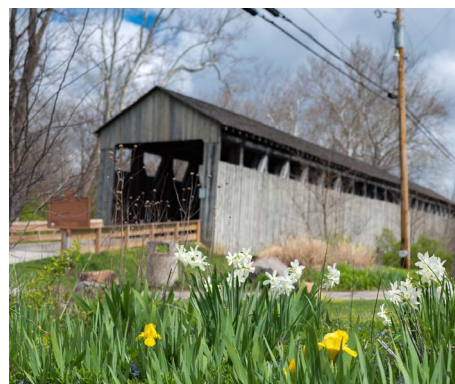

Oxford is full of iconic landmarks that reflect its rich history and vibrant culture. Snap a photo beneath the beloved Oxford Town Clock, stroll across the scenic Black Covered Bridge, or admire the inspiring "Changemakers of Oxford" mural, celebrating influential community members. While you're here, don't miss the massive "The Oxford Hive" and vibrant Fox Mural at Peffer Park—local favorites for mural lovers. History buff? There's many preserved places in Oxford to see! Step back in time at the DeWitt Log Cabin, a preserved piece of 1800s frontier life. Nature inspired? Take a peaceful walk through the Miami University Formal Gardens, a picturesque retreat year-round behind the Marcum Hotel & Conference Center.

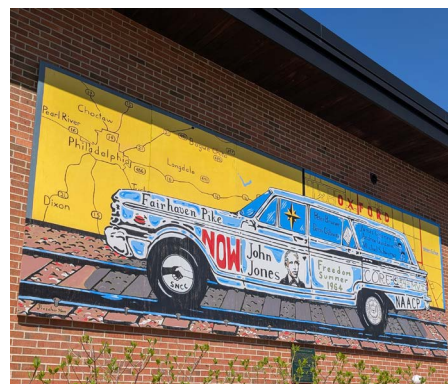

OXFORD TOWN CLOCK

A beloved symbol, the Oxford Town Clock stands proudly at the heart of Uptown. With its classic design and prominent location in front of Brick Street, it has kept time—and tradition—for generations. Stop by to view this iconic clock as a timeless landmark to life in Oxford.

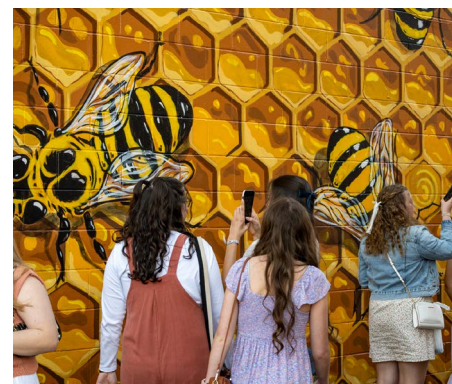

BLACK COVERED BRIDGE

Known as one of the longest and few remaining covered bridges in southwest Ohio, and on its original site. The Black Covered Bridge is a must see landmark in Oxford, Ohio. Restored in 2000, this location is preserved by the Oxford Museum Association featuring a State of Ohio Bicentennial Historic Marker on site.

"CHANGEMAKERS OF OXFORD" MURAL

Rehomed at the municipal building of Oxford, this mural honors local leaders who have made a lasting impact on the community and beyond. With vibrant portraits and bold colors, this mural highlights individual changemakers who have advanced equity, education, and civic engagement in Oxford.

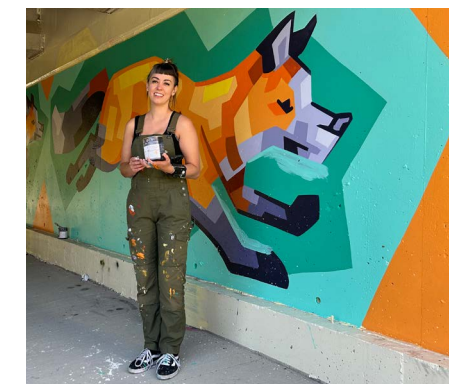

"THE OXFORD HIVE" MURAL

Take a selfie at this massive double-sided alley mural by artist, Joe Prescher. Funded by donations from the community, this mural was also painted by locals and students to fill in the honeycombs with "honey" to make their mark as a community inspiration and to Oxford's history in modern beekeeping.

DEWITT LOG HOMESTEAD

Take a glimpse into the 19th-century frontier life. Built in the early 1800s and is now the oldest remaining structure in Oxford township. DeWitt cabin reflects Oxford's early settler history and serves as a hands-on educational site during special events like Hike-A-Thon and the Oxford Museum Association.

FOX MURAL (PEFFER PARK)

Discover this woodland secret at Peffer Park, the Fox Mural created by local artist, Hannah Webb (AKA The Obanoth), is a vibrant tribute to Oxford's natural wildlife. Nestled on the Oxford Area Trails, this large-scale mural features foxes running under the bridge and is a new favorite for mural art enthusiasts.

FORMAL GARDENS

A serene escape in the heart of campus, visit the Miami University Formal Gardens for landscaped paths, seasonal blooms, and a peaceful atmosphere year-round. These gardens are a favorite spot for quiet walks, photography, and a place to relax. See for yourself why it's one of Oxford's hidden gems.

Love & Honor MIAMI UNIVERSITY

Miami University is an integral part of what makes Oxford so wonderful, take advantage of all it has to offer! Miami University is named after the Miami River valley which runs from southwest Indiana to Hamilton, OH belonging originally within the traditional homelands of the Myaamia and Shawne Native Americans. Sharing a common name, place, and commitment to education, Miami University and the Miami Tribe of Oklahoma have built over a 50-year relationship based on collaboration, trust, and respect.

Follow the Myaamia Center on Facebook and X @MyaamiaCenter

At the heart of this partnership is the Myaamia Center – the research arm of the Tribe. Located on the university's Oxford campus, the center is internationally known for its language and cultural revitalization work.

In 2021, Daryl Baldwin, director of the Myaamia Center, was nominated by President Biden and confirmed by the U.S. Senate to become a member of the National Endowment for the Humanities.

Today, more than 40 Myaamia students attend Miami University where they learn Myaamia language, history, and culture as part of the Myaamia Heritage Program. There are a number of Myaamia spaces and items across the university's Oxford campus. You can explore them on this self-guided walking tour.

"The Two Miamis (niišwimyaamiikaana)"

Each year the Oxford Chamber presents awards to two businesses that are an essential part of the Oxford community. The Chamber strives to select businesses who have provided years of excellent service to visitors and residents and truly make a difference in the City of Oxford.

THANK YOU
2024 BUSINESSES OF THE YEAR
FOR HELPING THE CITY OF OXFORD THRIVE!

F&M Bank is one of Oxford's newer banks, opening at Steward Square in 2024. They have been very involved in local lending & have become great community partners for our residents and the Oxford Chamber. This year they distributed "Freddy Dollars" to clients or potential clients to spend at our local businesses with the past few being held at Kofenya Coffee, Spring Street Treats and Patterson's Café. Not only did this help our local businesses but our community enjoyed free coffee and ice cream. They also sponsored our local Talawanda Flag Football Team, and donated money to local organizations such as Kiwanis, TOPSS, etc.. This is amazing support given back to our community from a local bank and their employees are always extremely friendly

Oxford Senior Center has over 350 members and plays a vital role in our community by providing essential services to the aging population and creating community involvement through local partnerships. Collaborations with the local hospital system and utilize community volunteers to provide balance healthy meals to community members via its home delivered meal program and this past year they delivered over 10,000 meals to older adults, and they also offer supportive services for Medicare, Medicaid, scheduling appointments, and bill payments. Activities that help promote independence such as exercise classes, social gatherings, mental health support groups, etc. Their transportation services serviced nearly 9,000 rides in 2023 and their Adult Day are program offers a safe & engaging environment with great care, a warm meal and participation in activities.
